Martin County teacher program needs sponsors

Staff report

Wednesday, September 17, 2008

MARTIN COUNTY — The Education Foundation of Martin County is hosting the annual Martin County Teacher of the Year program in partnership with the Martin County Association of School Administrators to recognize outstanding teaching.

Nominees are selected by their peers from each of the schools throughout the district. Each nominee must participate in an introductory orientation, complete a comprehensive portfolio and take part in an intensive interview process.

The name of the winning teacher is announced during the Martin County Teacher of the Year Celebration in February.

The district winner then represents the Martin County School District in the competition to become the Florida Department of Education's Teacher of the Year.

The Education Foundation is currently seeking sponsors for this teacher recognition program. Sponsorship levels are $5,000 and $2,500 with numerous benefits associated with each. For more information, call Lisa Rhodes at (772) 219-1200, ext. 30417, or go to www.EducationFoundationMC.org for additional information.
