

Evening of Excellence education fundraiser set for March 20 in Stuart

By staff report

Tuesday, March 9, 2010

STUART — An Evening of Excellence is the Education Foundation of Martin County's annual fundraising event featuring its signature Bids for Kids auctions. The event raises funds to enrich education for students.

An Evening of Excellence will be March 20 at Mariner Sands Country Club in Stuart. Cocktails, passed hors d'oeuvres and silent auction will begin at 6 p.m. Auction items include box suite tickets to a Bon Jovi concert, a fishing excursion, a getaway to the castle resort Adare Manor in Ireland, beach-side stay in the Bahamas, spa packages, a PGA National golf retreat, baskets, jewelry, and golf outings. Dinner will feature a lobster and filet of beef entrée prepared by Chef John Saundry. Then, it's auctioneer Elliot Paul's turn to crank up the bidding on the live auction items.

To inquire about sponsorship opportunities, donate an auction item, or make your reservations, contact Lisa Rhodes at (772) 219-1200 ext. 30417, or e-mail LRhodes@EducationFoundationMC.org.

