Healthy award

Lisa Rhodes emailed Star Tracks to tell us the Education Foundation of Martin County has secured a $10,000 Champion of Healthy Kids grant from the General Mills Foundation. It was given in recognition of Port Salerno Elementary School's efforts to promote physical activity and healthy food choices among its students. There are only 50 such grants given each year throughout the country. For information, call (772) 219-1200, ext. 30417.
