

Star Tracks Oct. 12, 2009

By Jackie Holfelder

Tuesday, October 13, 2009

Kudos to Nestor

The Education Foundation of Martin County and the Lyric Theatre have partnered to establish an Artist Residency Program that provides educational opportunities to Martin County's students and teachers. The program debuted with a week-long "Nestor Torres Initiative," visiting six different schools in the county.

John Loesser, executive diector of the Lyric stated, "it is our goal to motivate and educate as many of our children as we can by having them work directly with the artists." Lisa Rhodes, executive director of the Education Foundation, added, "This collaborative effort is allowing us to provide a one-of-a-kind educational opportunity by infusing exceptional talent into the educational experience." To learn more, call (772) 219-1200, ext. 30417.

